• the collection of the information is necessary for or directly related to that purpose.

Personal information will not be collected by unlawful or unfair means.

Where personal information is collected for inclusion in a record or in a generally available publication the Institute will take reasonable steps to ensure that, before the information is collected or, if that is not practicable, as soon as practicable after the information is collected, the Student concerned is generally aware of:
• the purpose for which the information is being collected;

3.2 Storage and Security of personal information

The Institute will ensure:

- that the record is protected, by such security safeguards as it is reasonable in the circumstances to take, against loss, against unauthorised access, use, modification or disclosure, and against other misuse; and
- that if it is necessary for the record to be given to a person in connection with the provision of a service to the Institute, everything reasonably within the power of the Institute will be done to prevent unauthorised use or disclosure of information contained in the record.

The Institute will maintain a record setting out:

- the nature of the records of personal information kept by or on behalf of the record-keeper;

the disclosure is reasonably necessary for the enforcement of the criminal law or of a law imposing a pecuniary penalty, or for the protection of the public revenue.

Where personal information is disclosed for the purposes of enforcement of the criminal law or of a law imposing a pecuniary penalty, or for the purpose of the protection of the public revenue, the record-keeper shall include in the record containing that information a note of the disclosure.
