

Student Code of Conduct

1 Background

This Code of Conduct has been formulated to provide a clear statement of the expectations of Menzies Institute of Technology (hereinafter known as the 'Institute') of students in respect of training and assessment matters and personal behaviour. Study at the Institute presents opportunities for interacting with other members of the Institute community. The Institute recognises and values the diversity of student experiences and expectations, and is committed to treating students, in a fair and transparent manner. All students in turn, are required to comply with the requirements set down in this Code of Conduct. All matters relating to plagiarism, collusion and cheating and its associated disciplinary procedure are outlined in the MITP23 Plagiarism, Collusion and Cheating Policy and Procedure.

2 Purpose

All students enrolled in vocational education and training courses of the Institute are required to maintain appropriate standards of behaviour at all times. Where behaviour is deemed to be improper or inappropriate as outlined in this policy, the Institute will take action in accordance with this policy. The following policy and procedure provide a guideline to the requirements of Institute staff in uncovering such misconduct from students, ensuring that appropriate action is taken after the required processes have been followed.

3 Audience

This policy applies to all vocational education and training students of the Institute in respect of all actions and activities relating to or impacting on the Institute or its students or employees.
